Retail spending as a share of total private spending in Europe, 2010 Map: GfK GeoMarketingSuperGeoSuperGeo Technologies, announces that SuperGIS Mobile Tour 3.0 for Android, its first Android application, is now available. Of the 19 elected members of the consortium's 2009-2010 board of directors, 17 serving members were re-elected and two new members have been seated. ArcGIS Viewer for Flex includes a variety of widgets that provide much of the essential geographic information system (GIS) client functionality needed to quickly create Web mapping applications. The NCR Council of Governments Chief Information Officers' Committee and Geographic Information Systems Subcommittee initiated the project using a grant from the U.S. Department of Homeland Security. For more information visit us at esri.com/news. To download ArcGIS Viewer for Flex, visit esri.com/flexviewer. Most of these widgets have an XML configuration file that enables them to be easily customized. Esri applications, running on more than one million desktops and thousands of Web and enterprise servers, provide the backbone for the world's mapping and spatial analysis. GfK GeoMarketing has a new map of the month detailing retail spending as a share of private spending, SuperGeo has released SuperGIS Mobile Tour 3.0 for Android, and ESRI Canada has released ESRI Flex Tools for MASAS, and Esri and Bluesky make new hire announcements. They can also publish new content to the hubs as either an Atom entry or CAP alert message through an ESRI Flex publishing tool. The tool creates point-of-interest or alert information using an intuitive pull-down menu. These MASAS tools have been designed to work with ArcGIS Viewer for Flex version 2.X, a free GIS Web application from ESRI. It can be easily deployed and configured to add new tools and data content without any programming. Users can extend the functionality with custom widgets downloaded from the ArcGIS Resource Center or developed using the ArcGIS API for Flex.The ESRI Flex Tools for MASAS can be downloaded from the Intellectual Resources Canada Web site: has announced that the City of Melbourne in Victoria, Australia is using ERDAS APOLLO Essentials – Image Web Server as a foundation for CoMPASS, an intranet mapping application designed to improve city services for citizens.KCI AssociatesKCI Associates of DC, a subsidiary of consulting engineer KCI Technologies Inc., and joint venture partner Photo Science are working with members of the county, district, state and regional governments across the National Capital Region (NCR) to publish and share data across jurisdictional boundaries to effectively respond to weather, security, recreation and emergency events. Built with ArcGIS API for Flex version 2.1, it is designed for developers that want to customize the appearance, functionality, and content of their mapping applications without the need for programming.
